

Office of the Mayor
Paul Finley

City of Madison
100 Hughes Road
Madison, AL 35758
256.772.5603

News Release

For release on:
Immediate Release

For more information, contact:
Will Smith, 256.464.8425

Madison Fire/Rescue Creates Home Safety Guide -- Free Booklet to be Hand Delivered to Every House in Madison

Madison, AL – Madison Fire and Rescue's Fire Prevention Office is now offering a free, easy to use guide to safe living in your home. The informative guide provides tips on how to prevent fires caused by commonly used household items such as space heaters, dryers, kitchen appliances, candles and outdoor grills. In addition to fire prevention tips, the guide also includes instructions and worksheets on creating home fire escape plans and what to do in case of a tornado which has become a stark reality with the event of May 6th.

The guide could not have been produced without the financial support of the following local businesses.

Bob Noel – State Farm Insurance

Inside Out Sports Café

Main Street Café

The Budding Chef

Smart Safe Tornado Shelters

Koorsen Fire & Security

Madison Firefighters Union Local 4566

Bon Chic Boutique

Redstone Federal Credit Union

Raney Fire Protection Systems

Madison Plumbing Service

Static X Motorsports

Woody Anderson Ford

Avis of Madison/Spirit Coach

Greg Machen Photography

Sharp Communication

Whitworth Animal Clinic

The Catbird Seat

Wendy's

Within the next 2 weeks, firefighters will begin canvassing neighborhoods; hand delivering this invaluable resource to every house within the City. Additional copies can be picked up at Madison Fire Station #1 located adjacent to City Hall at 100 Hughes Road.

#END#